EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

GENERAL DISCLAIMER—CHAPTER 7

RECENT USAGE, FRAUD, ETC: I, the client, understand that the following debts may survive bankruptcy and may still have to be paid after the bankruptcy: recent cash advances and credit card use; debts arising from fraud; debts where I gave false financial statements to obtain credit; NSF checks; and/or debts that I neglect to disclose.

STUDENT LOANS: I understand that student loans are not dischargeable through bankruptcy. I understand that I bear full responsibility for making payment arrangements on my student loans after bankruptcy. My attorneys have explained all the foregoing in great detail, and I will hold my attorneys harmless for any student loan liability that I must pay.

DIVORCE DEBTS: I understand that child support, alimony and maintenance (past, present and future), and debts I was previously ordered to pay in a divorce decree are not dischargeable through bankruptcy. I understand that I bear full responsibility for making payment arrangements on my domestic support orders after bankruptcy. My attorneys have explained all the foregoing in great detail, and I will hold my attorneys harmless for any domestic support obligation that I must pay. My attorney has explained that the only way that I may discharge the debt obligated to me through the terms of the divorce decree is by bringing an adversary action before the bankruptcy court to determine the dischargeability of the divorce debt. I understand that at the adversary hearing my attorney would have to establish that I cannot afford to pay the debt and that a ruling in my favor would provide more of a benefit to me than it would act as a detriment to my spouse and dependents.

CO-SIGNER LIABILITY: I understand that co-signers, joint applicants and joint card holders are not protected by the bankruptcy and that a creditor can collect from a joint debtor. I understand that I likely can prevent collection against my co-debtors by continuing to make regular payments to the creditor. I agree that I will hold my attorney harmless for any co-signer liability that results from my failure to continue paying on co-signed debts.

TAX: I understand that income tax debts generally are not discharged. I also understand that sales tax, use tax, and 941 tax are not discharged.

TAX REFUNDS: I understand that the Trustee assigned to my case has the right to all or part of my tax refund in excess of any amount that can be protected with exemptions. The trustee can request any information about how my tax refund was spent, if spent. I know that I should not spend my tax refund until I have consulted with my attorney as to how I plan to do so. I understand that whether my fund is examined and/or requested by the Trustee depends on several factors, including but not limited to, amount of refund, timing of filing, and the total amount of my debts. I agree to cooperate with my attorneys and the Trustee should the Trustee require turnover of the full amount, or a portion of, my refund.

UTILITY BILLS: I understand that gas, electric, telephone, satellite, cable and other utility bills are generally dischargeable, but that if I want service after the bankruptcy with a company listed in my bankruptcy, I may be required to open a new account and pay a substantial deposit. I understand the water bills are generally secured by the real estate, so if I own real estate and have water bills arrears, I will need to pay them after filing, until the point at which I no longer have any Legal possession of the real estate.

GOVERNMENTAL FINES OR DEBTS: I understand that debts owed to a governmental unit or government fines, (such as parking tickets, building code violations, debts for overpayment of public aid and unemployment) may not be discharged. Additionally, court costs that have been incurred by myself or other attorneys in pursuing collection of my debts are also non-dischargeable and I may have to repay those debts after my discharge.

ChicagoDebtSolutions

by Trepeck Law Group, LLC

NON-FILING SPOUSE: If I am married and file individually, I understand that my attorneys do not represent my spouse. Only my eligible debts will be discharged in my bankruptcy. If I have joint debt with my spouse, my spouse will still be responsible for the debt. If I want to protect a non-filing spouse, my spouse must pay our joint debts or file a joint bankruptcy petition (additional fees will apply).

UNDISCLOSED CREDITORS: I understand that any debt not disclosed on my bankruptcy petition may not be discharged in this case, and I may be liable for payment of that debt after filing.

UNDISCLOSED PROPERTY: I understand that I must disclose all assets (whatever the value), including but not limited to property deeded and/or titled in my name whether in my possession or not. Any personal or other property in excess of the allowable bankruptcy exemptions can be liquidated by the appointed trustee in my bankruptcy case in order to make a distribution to my creditors. I have disclosed all the property that I have in my name to my attorney, even if the values are currently zero.

UNDISCLOSED INCOME: I further understand that I must completely and accurately disclose to my attorneys all proof of household income for the six (6) months prior to the filing of my bankruptcy case from all sources, including, wages, government assistance, business income, bonuses, court proceedings that result in a judgment in my favor, IRA distributions, etc. I have also disclosed any future known changes to household income.

I understand that my attorneys cannot guarantee that all of my debts will be discharged. My attorneys have explained that whether a debt can be discharged is based on the law and the facts. My attorneys can only make an educated prediction based on current law and the facts I provide to them. I acknowledge that I am responsible for providing copies of requested documents to my attorneys along with any complete facts and correct dates.

I understand that the bankruptcy court may dismiss my bankruptcy petition if I deliberately destroy financial records, lie to the court or omit relevant information, falsified facts on past credit applications, have or had enough income to pay my debts or a portion thereof, have property with equity that exceeds what my attorneys can protect under exemption laws, incurred significant debt when I did not have the money to pay (especially if the debt was for luxury items), try or tried to hide assets or financial transactions, hide money from a spouse in a divorce proceeding, or transferred property for less than fair market value in the recent past.

I hereby acknowledge that all information supplied by me, as debtor in this case, is subject to examination by the United States Attorney General and United States Trustee, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 342(b)(2)(B). I further acknowledge that failure to completely and accurately disclose all of my assets, liabilities and household income can result in criminal fines, imprisonment, or both under 11 U.S.C. § 342(b)(2)(A).

I HAVE READ AND FULLY UNDERSTAND THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE ABOVE DOCUMENT. I ACKNOWLEDGE THAT MY ATTORNEYS HAVE DESCRIBED THE ABOVE IN GREAT DETAIL AND I AGREE TO HOLD MY ATTORNEYS HARMLESS FOR ANY LOSS I SUFFER IF THE CASE IS DISMISSED, THE STAY IS LIFTED OR CERTAIN DEBTS ARE NOT ELIMINATED.

DISCLAIMER REGARDING REAFFIRMATION AGREEMENTS

My attorneys, Chicago Debt Solutions, have advised me that my secured creditors (i.e., mortgage holders, car lien holders, etc.) may offer me reaffirmation agreements on my secured loans. Reaffirmation agreements are contracts between the creditor and myself that ensure that my personal liability to pay the loan survives the bankruptcy.

Whether or not a reaffirmation agreement is signed, if I do not make payments as scheduled, the secured item could be foreclosed, repossessed or I could be sued after the bankruptcy for the return of the secured item. This is because the secured loan is still tied to the property that secures it and the bankruptcy does eliminate the lien.

A signed and court-approved reaffirmation agreement will mean I am also again personally obligated for the balance of the loan, despite having filed bankruptcy. In that case, I will be responsible for the balance of the loan even if the secured item is returned to the creditor (after a deduction is made for the car's current value).

My attorneys have explained that reaffirmation agreements operate to protect the interests of the creditor and that it may not be in my best interests to sign a reaffirmation agreement. My attorneys also have explained that they will not prepare reaffirmation agreements on my behalf and that they will sign a reaffirmation agreement when I have shown I can afford payments on the property and still remain current with my other expenses; this shows that the agreement does not pose a financial strain on me.

If my attorney cannot sign off on the agreement for me, I still have the option of signing it alone, without an attorney, and sending it back to the creditor directly. A hearing may be held during which the court will inquire as to my ability to pay on the loan. The court will then determine whether it is in my best interests to keep the secured item. I understand that if the court decides it is not in my interests to keep the secured item, I may need to surrender it.

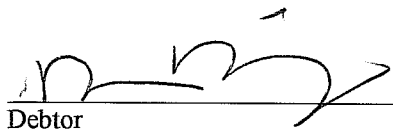

My attorneys have explained to me that my alternatives to reaffirmation may include: (1) making payments as scheduled and keeping the item insured without reaffirmation agreement; (2) redemption (paying the item's current fair market value either by cash payment or by taking out a new loan to finance the secured item; this is generally an option for personal property only); or (3) surrender of the secured item. I understand that under option (1) some creditors may try to repossess the collateral even if I am making payments on it. I assume the risk that this may happen in my case.

I understand that if a reaffirmation agreement is not signed, my creditor will be less likely to work with me if I fall behind on my payments. I also understand that my creditor may not send me statements or payment reminders without a signed reaffirmation agreement. Nevertheless, I know I will need to continue to make payments to protect my secured property. If I wish to keep my home, I can continue timely payments and pay the insurance, taxes, and water bills. I will likely be able to re-finance my home after a few years and after I re-finance I will receive statements and other communications from my new mortgage company, as well as credit reporting.

ChicagoDebtSolutions
by Trepeck Law Group, LLC

If I do not reaffirm my secured loans, but make payments to the creditor, I understand that I should keep all proofs of payment so that I can prove such payments were made, if an issue over payment or credit-worthiness arises in the future.

I agree to hold my attorneys harmless for any loss of secured property that results because (1) the court determines it is not in my best interests to reaffirm; (2) the creditor insists on replevin (return of personal property), foreclosure (taking possession of my real estate) or repossession (pick up the car) if no valid reaffirmation is executed; or (3) I fell behind on payments, with or without reaffirmation, and the creditor takes over the secured property to protect its interests; or (4) any loss whatsoever related to execution (or lack thereof) of a reaffirmation agreement.

DEBTOR EDUCATION COURSE DISCLAIMER

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 (BAPCPA), I have been advised by my attorneys, Chicago Debt Solutions, that in order for me to receive a successful discharge of my Chapter 7 bankruptcy case, I must complete a Debtor Education Course after my case is filed. I understand that this class is different, and in addition to, the class I must take before my case is filed.

My attorneys have provided me with the name, phone number and website, where applicable, of a qualifying debtor counseling course providers, as defined under BAPCPA, where I can fulfill my requirements under the BAPCPA. Furthermore, my attorneys have advised me that this class must be completed within 60 days after my case is filed.

I understand and have been advised that my failure to complete this course will result in the dismissal of my bankruptcy case; whereby I will again be responsible for my debts, without the protection of the bankruptcy.

I understand that my attorneys have asked that I provide them with a copy of The Certificate of Completion, detailing my completion of the debtor education course requirement, no later than 45 days after my case is filed, so that they, in turn, may get the certificate filed with the bankruptcy court in a timely manner.

I fully understand that failure to complete the class in a timely manner, as outlined above, could result in my not receiving a successful discharge in my bankruptcy case. I will hold my attorneys, Chicago Debt Solutions, harmless should I fail to meet this requirement.

DISCLAIMER REGARDING PREVIOUSLY-FILED BANKRUPTCIES AND THEIR EFFECT ON NEW FILINGS

My attorneys have explained to me, the undersigned, and I fully understand that it is my responsibility to inform my attorneys if I have filed a bankruptcy before, even if it was in another jurisdiction a joint case with a spouse to whom I am no longer married or who is not filing at this time, or any bankruptcy filed by me under a different name or social security number.

Chapter 7 filing to Chapter 7 filing: My attorneys have explained to me and I understand that at least eight years must pass between Chapter 7 filings or the subsequent Chapter 7 will be dismissed.

Chapter 7 filing to Chapter 13 filing: My attorneys have explained to me and I understand that if I received a Chapter 7 discharge and file a Chapter 13 within four (4) years of the previous filing, my unsecured, non-priority debts that I include in the Chapter 13 (presumably debts that arose since my previous bankruptcy discharge) cannot be discharged.

My attorneys have explained to me and I understand that if I complete a Chapter 13 filed within four (4) years of a previous Chapter 7, only a portion of the unsecured debt may be paid through the Chapter 13 and that when I complete the Chapter 13, the unpaid portion of the unsecured debt may come due, with interest. I understand that this means that in this case, I must pay all my debts—either through my plan payments or after the case is complete.

Chapter 13 filing to Chapter 7 filing: My attorneys have explained to me and I understand that if I received a Chapter 13 discharge (meaning I completed my case successfully) but paid less than seventy (70) percent to my unsecured, non-priority debts and file a Chapter 7 within six (6) years of that filing, my unsecured, non-priority debts that I include in the subsequent bankruptcy (presumably debts that arose since my previous bankruptcy discharge) cannot be discharged or the case may be dismissed.

Chapter 13 filing to Chapter 13 filing: My attorneys have explained to me and I understand that if I received a Chapter 13 discharge and file a Chapter 13 within two (2) years of that filing, my unsecured, non-priority debts that I include in the bankruptcy (presumably debts that arose since my previous bankruptcy discharge) cannot be discharged.

I agree to hold my attorneys harmless hereto for any loss that results from the timing of filing my initial case and/or any subsequent bankruptcy that I may file. I agree to fully inform my attorneys of prior bankruptcies and to provide documentation or detailed information when requested, so that Chicago Debt Solutions can advise me appropriately.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.
